

Healthcare Association of New York State

Agenda

Welcome and Introductions	Maria Sacco, R.R. T., C.P.H.Q Program Manager HANYS
CATHETER ASSOCIATED URINARY TRACT INFECTION (CAUTI) PREVENTION: Translating Evidence Based Strategies Into Practice	George T. Martin, M.D., FACP, Director Department of Medicine, Maria Leah Cervantes MS, NP-BC, CCRN, Associate Director of Nursing/ Critical Care, Abbi-Gail Baboolal, RN, MSN, FNP, Associate Director of Nursing, Tresa Mary Abraham, BSN, RN, CIC, Head Nurse/Infection Preventionist Jincy Joseph, RN, MA, CCRN, NEA-BC, Associate Director Staff Development New York Health and Hospitals-Queens
The “Culture of Culturing”: when is a urine culture appropriate	Patricia Posa, R. N., B.S.N., M.S.A.F.A.A.N. System Performance Improvement Leader St. Joseph’s Mercy Health System Ann Arbor, Michigan

This material was prepared by the Atlantic Quality Innovation Network (AQIN), the Medicare Quality Innovation Network-Quality Improvement Organization for New York State, South Carolina, and the District of Columbia, under contract with the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), an agency of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The contents do not necessarily reflect CMS policy. 11SOW-AQINNY-TshC.1-16-24